Class, Race, Ethnicity Questionnaire

Your responses on these forms will not be seen by your instructor until after the semester is over and grades are in. Once data are entered and linked, all names will be removed and no attempt will ever be made to identify individual respondents. These forms will be destroyed as soon as the information is extracted and aggregated. Thank you very much for your time and attention to these.

Part I. Please take a few moments to consider the following scenario questions and answer them honestly (your "gut" reaction). There are no right/wrong answers, and your responses will be anonymous. Circle the response that best describes how you would react. Thank you.

1. Imagine you were shopping at a grocery store and the aisles were just wide enough for two carts to pass each other. As you went down an aisle, you notice a person coming toward you down the same aisle.

    a. If that person was similar in age and dress as you, how likely would you be to make eye contact and nod a casual hello?

           No Way   1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10   Almost Guaranteed

    b. If that person was wearing older, unwashed clothes and appears to be lacking in basic personal hygiene, how likely would you be to make eye contact and nod a casual hello?

           No Way   1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10   Almost Guaranteed

    c. If you had seen that person holding up a sign asking for food outside the store before you came in and you anticipated he/she was experiencing homelessness, how likely would you be to make eye contact and nod a casual hello?

           No Way   1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10   Almost Guaranteed

    d. If that person was a young, African American male wearing a hoodie pulled up around his face, how likely would you be to make eye contact and nod a casual hello?

           No Way   1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10   Almost Guaranteed

    e. If you previously had heard the person talking with the manager on how to redeem his/her food stamps in the store, how likely would you be to make eye contact and nod a casual hello?
